

THE RESIDENCES AT THOMAS CIRCLE

IN-TOWN SENIOR LIVING

Independent Living

Independent Living

Living independently means having choices. It's the privacy and freedom of home combined with the convenience and security of on-call assistance in a maintenance-free environment. Our community offers active seniors a variety of choices about how they want to live. There are residential choices, such as a wide selection of apartment floor plans. There are also lifestyle choices: a full calendar of social and cultural events, a selection of dining options and choices for personalized services to meet your particular needs.

Active Living for Active Seniors

The Residences at Thomas Circle offer a wide variety of social, cultural and recreational programs. Book groups, educational seminars, group exercise, theatre outings—these are just a few of the many activities our residents enjoy. We listen to residents' feedback to develop programs that will complement their current interests as well as help them discover new ones.
